

Floor Inspectors Accreditation Course

About the Floor Inspection Scheme

In response to growing concerns regarding inconsistent and unprofessional floor inspection reporting, which in some cases have ended in litigation, ATFA has developed a nationally consistent system to establish a register of qualified Floor Inspectors, and with a longer term goal of improving the overall level of workmanship in the industry. Those wanting an inspection can now go online and after registering for an inspection they are provided with the contact details for the inspectors in that state.

This course is for experienced and well skilled members of the industry. The course is conducted over 3 full days and requires a 70% pass mark to be considered for the publicly available inspector register. Those wanting to undertake inspections as an ATFA inspector will also need good computer word processing skills and good report writing skills. This is as essential as technical knowledge.

Alternatively, company representatives are also encouraged to attend for own internal investigation purposes and can choose not to undertake the assessments or be publicly available.

Conditions of Being an ATFA Floor Inspector

Upon successful completion of the Floor Inspector Accreditation Course participants agree to the following terms:

- Being included on ATFA's National Register for Floor Inspectors and inclusion of your details on the ATFA website.
- Any work carried out under the ATFA inspection scheme will require the rates in the table following to be applied, this includes:
 - work referred from the ATFA or sourced from the ATFA website;
 - work referred from a Government Agency as a result of ATFA promotion;
 - work carried out using ATFA accreditation as a marketing advantage; and
 - work carried out using ATFA forms and/or guidelines (or those considered the same).
- Any report completed under ATFA provisions will require reports to be checked in line with ATFA policy.
- You (being self employed), your company or the company you work for will be required to hold appropriate Professional Indemnity Insurance to conduct Floor Inspections. If you do not have this ATFA may be able to assist you.
- Maintain a register of completed inspections for auditing purposes.
- Submit a final report within 5 working days of the inspection to the client or within a period agreed to with the client if outside this.
- ATFA reserves the right to modify procedures and policy for floor inspection at its discretion and will inform you of any changes.

The minimum fees associated with conducting a Floor Inspection are as follows:

Type of Service	Minimum Fee	% Returned to ATFA
General Call Out for a member or non- member*	$250.00* (for up to 2 hours & $150/hr after that)	20% ($50.00+)*
Dispute Resolution related to a member or non-member's project*	$250.00* (for up to 2 hours & $150/hr after that)	20% ($50.00+)*
Full Floor Inspection related to an ATFA member project*	$450.00*	10% ($45.00)*
Full Floor Inspection related to a non-member project*	$650.00*	20% ($130.00)*

The fee is charged on the basis of who the commissioning party is.

Provisions are also available to clients for review and appeal panels conducted by the ATFA. These fees will be reviewed and amended from time to time, all figures include GST.

* Additional travel costs may be applied depending on the location of the site to be inspected.
