

Advanced Timber Flooring Installation and Finish School

About the Advanced School

This hands on workshop introduces some of the best installers, sanders and finishers in the USA who will demonstrate and get you involved in the techniques they have refined over many years. As the name suggests they will conduct various advanced activities within timber flooring installation and finishing.

These US instructors have successfully been conducting this course throughout the United States for many years and the feedback is amazing. The style of delivery and the way they get you involved is exhilarating.
